Nothing compares to the beauty, power, and splendor of opera.

I am thrilled to invite you, our loyal Lyric family, to join us for another exciting season of performances. The 2023/24 Season at Lyric Opera of Chicago promises a rich assortment of magnificent operas (in a wide variety of styles and languages), a special concert with Music Director Enrique Mazzola, and a one-night-only performance by Tony, Grammy, and Emmy Award-winning soprano Audra McDonald.

The bravura season opener will be The Flying Dutchman, Wagner's first acknowledged masterpiece. The production will feature Maestro Mazzola conducting his first Wagner at Lyric, and a wonderful cast led by Tomasz Konieczny, who brilliantly performed the role of Wozzeck at Lyric several seasons ago. Our leading lady will be the riveting soprano Tamara Wilson.

For the first time in fifty years, we will present Donizetti's The Daughter of the Regiment, a lighthearted vocal spectacular. Tenor Lawrence Brownlee leads the way as Tonio, tossing off high Cs, and he'll be joined by Lisette Oropesa, the sensational Cuban-American soprano in her Lyric debut.

Next up is Janáček's Jenůfa, one of the greatest of twentieth century masterpieces. The title role will be sung in her Lyric debut by Lise Davidsen, the thrilling Norwegian soprano. She will be joined by Nina Stemme, the great Swedish soprano, whose performances of Elektra here a few seasons ago were truly unforgettable. Distinguished German director Claus Guth will make his Lyric debut as will Jakob Hruša, the exciting Czech conductor recently announced as the new music director of London's Royal Opera House.

Again on the lighter side comes Cinderella, with a production in a classic mode, with the exciting young Taiwanese conductor Yi-Chen Lin on the podium.

In the wake of the immensely successful performances in 2022 of Fire Shut Up in My Bones, we are thrilled to offer another work from composer Terence Blanchard, his widely-acclaimed first opera Champion. This co-production with the Metropolitan Opera will be conducted by Enrique Mazzola. Justin Austin and Whitney Morrison, whom many will remember from their stunning performances in Fire, will be reunited in Champion and will be joined in the cast by Lyric favorite Eric Owens.

We cap off the season with Aida, one of the most spectacular of all operas. Michelle Bradley, triumphant in Tosca last season, will take the title role in a grand production directed by Francesca Zambello and under the baton of Maestro Mazzola.

Lyric's Music Director will also conduct the Lyric Opera Orchestra and Chorus in two all-Mozart evenings, anchored by a large-scale performance of his Requiem. There's much more enticing detail in the pages that follow. We hope you will join us at the Opera House for another thrilling season — we could not do it without you.

Please join us!

I can't wait to welcome you back to the Lyric Opera House for the 2023/24 Season. We have so many incredibly talented artists joining us, and some of the most exciting opera productions in the world. I know you'll be energized, uplifted, and moved by these great performances.

WAGNER

The Flying Dutchman

A FATAL OBSESSION

September 23, 27, October 1M, 4M, 7

New-to-Chicago production
Sung in German with projected English titles

The first opera that revealed Wagner's genius, The Flying Dutchman is the story of a young woman's obsession. Senta dreams of the Dutchman, who's cursed to wander the earth. He comes ashore every seven years, searching for a woman who will be faithful to him until death. When she meets him, Senta's fate is sealed. The Flying Dutchman contains some of Wagner's most magnificent and emotional music, including thrilling, spectacular choruses. Leading an outstanding cast are Tomasz Konieczny (previously the title role in Lyric's spellbinding Wozzeck) and Tamara Wilson (the radiant heroine of Il trovatore and Ernani), in Christopher Alden's electrifying production, with Music Director Enrique Mazzola conducting his first Wagner at Lyric.

DONIZETTI

THE DAUGHTER OF THE REGIMENT

SHARP WIT AND HIGH FLYING VOCALS

November 4, 10, 14, 16M, 19M, 22M, 25

New-to-Chicago production

Sung in French with projected English titles

Donizetti's The Daughter of the Regiment is bel canto opera's equivalent of vintage champagne. Marie, the lovable, irrepressible, spirited heroine — a foundling, raised by soldiers — loves handsome Tonio. Things get complicated when the Marquise carts her off to refine her with a “proper” education. In one exhilarating number after another, Marie throws off coloratura flourishes like shooting stars, while her tenor sweetheart pops out nine high Cs in a single aria! Bel canto superstar Lawrence Brownlee and comedic veteran Alessandro Corbelli partner with the dazzling Lisette Oropesa in her eagerly awaited Lyric debut. The marvelously stylish Speranza Scappucci conducts Laurent Pelly's quick-witted, uproarious production.

JANÁČEK

INTENSE DRAMA AND UNFORGETTABLE MUSIC

JENŮFA

November 12M, 15M, 18, 21, 26M

New-to-Chicago production

Sung in Czech with projected English titles

Janáček's Jenůfa is a dark and stunning masterpiece, both musically and dramatically. In this profoundly moving story, Kostelnička secretly drowns her foster-daughter Jenůfa's illegitimate child, hoping to save Jenůfa — and herself — from shame and humiliation. When the murder is discovered, Kostelnička accepts the consequences, but Jenůfa ends the opera with hope for the future. Performing Janáček's magnificent score will be an enthralling cast led by two of the finest dramatic sopranos of our time: opera's newest superstar, Lise Davidsen, and the legendary Nina Stemme, Lyric's sensational Elektra in 2019. Czech maestro Jakob Hruša will bring unique authenticity to this unforgettable music, leading Claus Guth's mesmerizing production.

ROSSINI

Cinderella

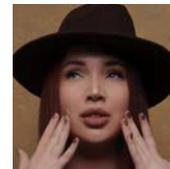

A HEARTWARMING STORY

January 21M, 26, 30, February 1M, 4M, 7M, 10

Sung in Italian with projected English titles

Rossini's enchanting fairytale heroine is the downtrodden daughter of a selfish father, Don Magnifico. When Prince Ramiro (disguised as his own valet, Dandini) meets her, they fall instantly in love, leading — after a few complications — to a heartwarming happy ending. Rossini's score provides endless sparkle, with Cenerentola's and Ramiro's arias abounding in fabulous vocal virtuosity. There's also hilarity, thanks to the antics of Magnifico and Dandini. Two rising stars, Vasilisa Berzhanskaya and Jack Swanson, will be joined by the incomparable Alessandro Corbelli to lead Lyric's cast, in Jean-Pierre Ponnelle's world-famous production led by the exciting Taiwanese conductor Yi-Chen Lin.

BLANCHARD

AN OPERA IN JAZZ

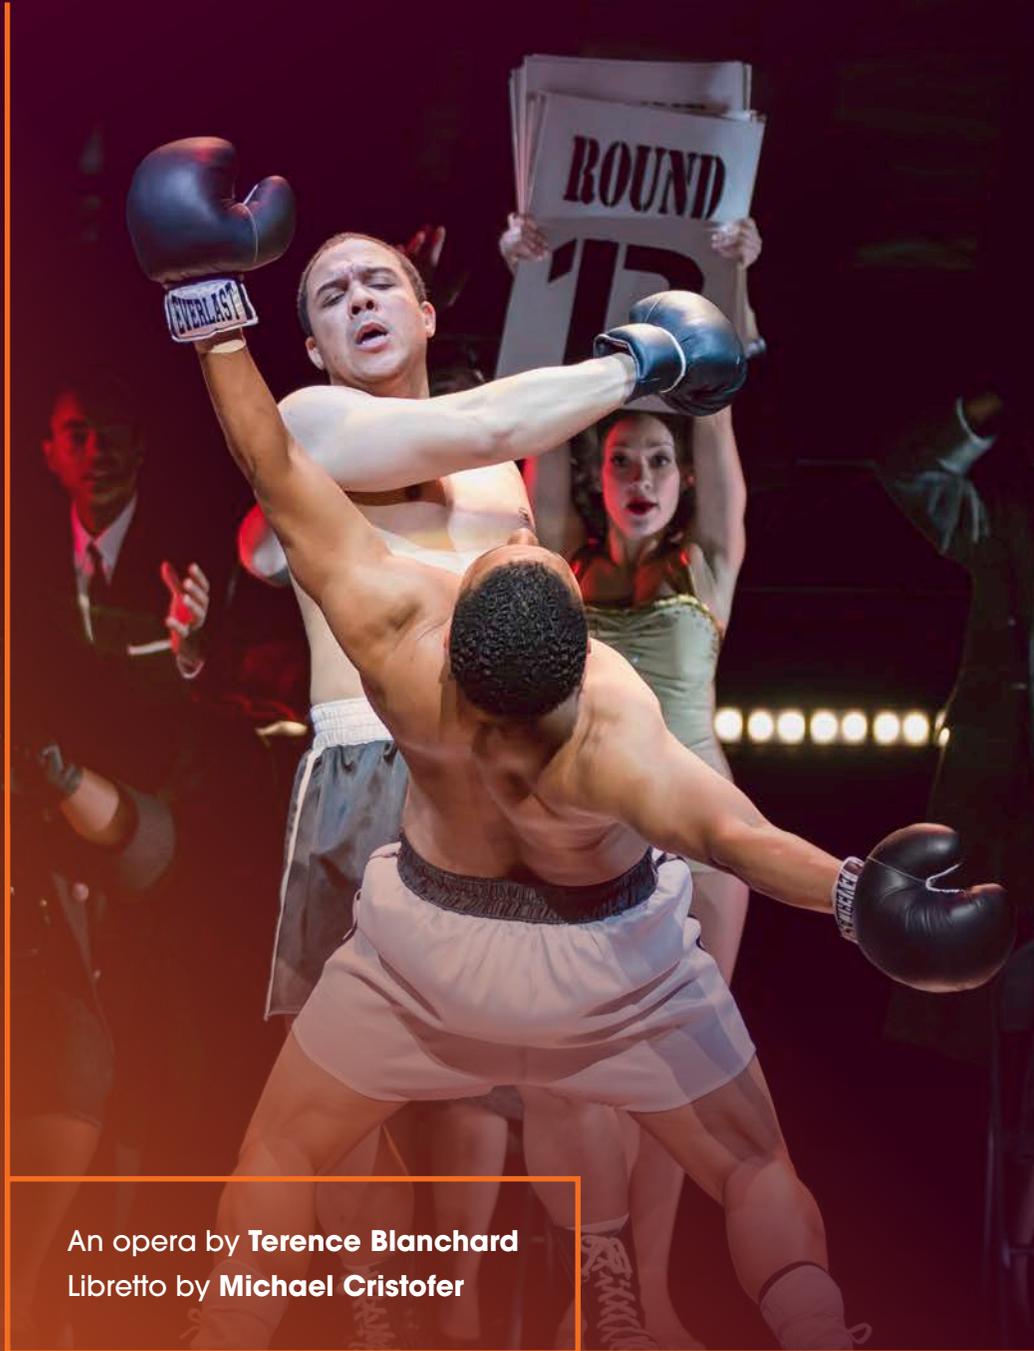

January 27, 31M, February 3, 6, 9, 11M

Lyric premiere

Sung in English with projected English titles

Based on a true story, Champion unfolds in what composer Terence Blanchard calls “an opera in jazz.” Welterweight boxer Emile Griffith is tortured by the complex realities of his life: decades-long guilt from defeating a challenger in the ring, who died from Griffith’s blows; and desperately conflicted feelings regarding his own sexuality. James Robinson’s production arrives in Chicago with a remarkable cast. Joining Lyric favorites Eric Owens, Whitney Morrison, and Paul Groves is Justin Austin, a brilliant new star who triumphed in Fire Shut Up in My Bones, with Music Director Enrique Mazzola leading the Lyric Opera Orchestra.

INTIMATE ARIAS AND THRILLING CHORUSES

March 9, 13M, 17M, 20, 23, 26, 29,
April 1, 4M, 7M

New-to-Chicago production
Sung in Italian with projected English titles

Opera at its grandest! While Aida delights audiences with its visual splendor, it also captivates them with a score ranging from exquisitely intimate arias to deeply dramatic duets and trios, and the most thrilling choruses Verdi ever composed. Aida presents a riveting love triangle, which unfolds in an alluring Egyptian setting. Each of the five principal artists in Lyric's Aida boasts not only a sumptuously beautiful voice, but also the charismatic presence to bring these characters vividly to life. Conducting Francesca Zambello's striking production will be Music Director Enrique Mazzola, acknowledged internationally as an exceptionally authoritative Verdian.

A SUBLIME CHORAL MASTERPIECE

MOZART Requiem

Conducted by Enrique Mazzola
Featuring the Lyric Opera of Chicago Orchestra & Chorus

March 22, 24M

Legend has it that Mozart believed he was writing the Requiem for his own funeral. Other composers completed it after his death, but — miraculously — this is not only a totally unified work musically, but one of the greatest choral pieces ever written. It offers a sublime beauty and dignity that leaves audiences profoundly moved and memorably uplifted. Under Music Director Enrique Mazzola, these concerts present a unique opportunity to celebrate the extraordinary Lyric Opera Chorus and Orchestra.

COMING SOON:

June 2 - 25, 2023

The return of the critically acclaimed Lyric production

Lyric's larger-than-life original production of West Side Story, which took audiences by storm with sold-out performances, returns this summer! With the lush sound of the Lyric Orchestra playing the original orchestrations, a grand-scale set, and a cast of stars that you can't miss, seeing a Broadway classic this way is a rare treat. Leonard Bernstein's music and Stephen Sondheim's lyrics will once again transplant Romeo and Juliet to the backstreets of New York City, where Tony and Maria are wide-eyed teenagers from two communities in conflict who fall in love. As their friends and family battle with one another, timeless melodies like "Somewhere," "Maria," "Tonight," "America," and more meld with the bold, sexy, iconic choreography of Jerome Robbins to create a musical theater experience you'll never forget.

Prices shown include discounts. Prices are subject to change. Subscriptions are not available in the blank areas.

Value Series subscribers may only exchange within the first three dates (excluding Sundays) of any 2023/24 opera production, otherwise upgrade fees will apply.

CYO seats will vary by event.

Aisle and adjacent seats incur an additional $10 per ticket fee in Main Floor Select, Main Floor Prime, and First Balcony 1 seating, and a $5 per ticket fee in all other sections of the house. Prices shown are for non-aisle and adjacent seats. Individual events within your subscription may have unique pricing.

Lyric reserves the right to sell up to eight seats per box for select performances.

Your philanthropic support, as well as your tenure as a subscriber, are taken into account when seats are assigned.

All subscription tickets will be sent via email for the 2023/24 Season. Box Office pickup will be available, beginning the week of September 18, 2023.
