LYRIC OPERA OF CHICAGO

EVENT BROCHURE

THE HISTORY

The Lyric Opera House, home to Lyric Opera of Chicago, is one of Chicago's historic landmarks and among the world's most beautiful buildings. Built in 1929 and fully restored in 1996, the Lyric Opera House is a hybrid of art nouveau and art deco designs, a majestic setting for entertaining on any scale. The 3,563-seat Ardis Krainik Theatre is the second-largest opera auditorium in North America and offers the largest stage in downtown Chicago. Excellent sightlines, premium acoustics, and intricate architectural detailing make for a fantastic and unique venue. The theatre, spacious back-of-house, lobby, grand foyer, and four private dining rooms are available to rent for public ticketed and private events. Support the arts by planning your next event in one of the finest venues in the world!

ARDIS KRAINIK THEATRE

The Ardis Krainik Theatre seats up to 3,700 and is available for concerts, graduations, presentations, conferences, productions and more. The stage is also the perfect setting for private dinners, galas and standing receptions.

Experience the possibilities at the opera. Amaze your attendees with a performance by flourishing opera singers and watch the backdrop rise to reveal your banquet onstage. The spacious back-of-house area allows wait staff to provide world-class service from just behind the curtain, and our professional staff will run the show, allowing you to focus on the success of your event. Show your creativity with state-of-the-art in-house lighting, sound, and scenery. Amenities include open orchestra pit, wide wing space, house lighting and sound equipment, platforms, drops, cyclorama, back-of-house with private and group dressing rooms, production offices, and two docks with interior vehicle access.
